

University of Nairobi in conjunction with Singuhua University, China successfully held 2014 China Africa Youth Forum. The event was held in the University of Nairobi on July 25th, 2014, Education building ED213 and Great Court.

"China Day" is a carnival held by the China-Africa Exchange Association of Tsinghua University and University of Nairobi. It provides an opportunity for Kenyan people to have a full and objective understanding of China, which will promote further exchanges and deepen the friendship between our two countries. As an exchange activity among college students, "China Day" has gained a lot of support from the government from both nations.
