

President of University of Bordeaux Montaigne visits the Department of Geography & Environmental Studies

The President of University of Bordeaux Montaigne, Prof. Jean Paul Jourdan, visited the Department of Geography and Environmental Studies on Tuesday 15th July 2014. This was a mission to discuss broader collaboration between University of Bordeaux Montaigne and the University of Nairobi – but with particular interest in geography, history and development studies. Present in the meeting were Dr. Samuel Owuor, Chairman, Department of Geography and Environmental Studies; Prof. Winnie Mitulla, Director, Institute for Development Studies; Dr. Ephraim Wahome, Chairman, Department of History and Archaeology; Prof. Elias Ayiamba and Ms. Teresa Mbatia. Thereafter, the delegation proceeded to pay a courtesy call to the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Nairobi, as well as the official signing of the Agreement of Academic Cooperation.
