

COLLABORATION WITH EDHEC BUSINESS SCHOOL

The University of Nairobi, School of Business and EDHEC Business School have entered into discussions on possible collaboration.

In a meeting between the two, it was discussed that they should consider engaging in collaborations in staff and students exchange both in teaching and research

Speaking during the meeting, representative from EDHEC Business School, Mrs.Cathy, said EDHEC School is keen on promoting collaborations in Kenya

While welcoming the initiative, Prof. Josiah Aduda , Dean School of Business, revealed that UoN has established remarkable relationships with other institutions and that a partnership with EDHEC Business School would be mutually beneficial. Prof. Aduda noted that benchmarking with the best universities in the world is one of the University of Nairobi's strategic plans.

The two universities will initiate and expedite a memorandum of understanding for the partnership.

Present during the meeting, was Prof. S.N Nzuve, Associate Dean PGS, Mr. C.N.Kariuki Associate Dean UGS, Mr.Herick Ondigo Chairman DFA,Dr.Mirie Mwangi and Mr.B.Mwangi, Assistant Registrar SOB