

TENDER, PROCUREMENT AND DISPOSAL COMMITTEES' MEMBERS SENSITIZED ON NEW PROCUREMENT LAW

The University of Nairobi

* Vision:

A world-class university committed to scholarly excellence

- * In a training organized by the University of Nairobi, the tender, procurement and disposal committees' members were sensitized on the recent changes in the procurement law.

- * During the refresher training, the Public Procurement Oversight Authority (PPOA) representatives took the participants through the procurement law and how E-procurement is going to be implemented and its effects on the University's operations.
- * Speaking during the opening ceremony, Vice-Chancellor,

- * Prof. George Magoha said that the University has invested heavily on training as part of the institutional capacity building to manage the dynamic nature of conducting business in the public sector and improve on service delivery.

- * He revealed that management is keen on appraising members of staff on the latest developments in public governance.
- * It is expected that after the training, new ways of conducting procurement and improved efficiency will be realized in the University.