

Some of the graduate of the first cohort of Translators and Interpreters which graduated in December 2011. Since then, the centre has graduated another class and is poised to graduating the third cohort in December 2013.