

The Kenya Science Campus grounds are used by the students for practicals on training on games such as football, handball, hockey and netball.