

The School of Economics and Environment for Development-Kenya (EfD-Kenya) will hold a Writers Workshop and from 23rd to 25th June, 2014 at the Fairview Hotel, Nairobi.

This will be followed by a Water Policy Day on 26th June, 2014 to share and receive feedback on ongoing work on water issues in Kenya. The Water Policy Day will bring together EfD-Kenya researchers and stakeholders in the water sector. Discussions will be around two themes: Water sourcing in rural Kenya and increasing block tariffs and the relationship between income and water use in Nairobi
