YALDA has for the past three months engaged in voluntary mentorship at the Bethsaida Children's Home situated in Githurai and has also extended its community volunteer program to Moi Avenue Primary School where members have been offering their talents and skills on a daily basis to support the vulnerable children.

The organization will be marking 100 days of volunteerism on July 9, 2015 from 2.00 pm to 4.30 pm at the Education Building (ED II). The theme for the event will be:
“VOLUNTEERISM: Its role in transforming the pace and nature of development; and supporting peace in Africa.”

Welcome.
