

‘ECHOES OF MY IMAGES’ A Play by the Free Travelling Theatre Kikuyu chapter

The actors in action at MPH

Free Travelling Theatre (FTT) Kikuyu chapter organized a show that took place on Wednesday at 3pm at MPH Hall. FTT is a registered theatre group with the University of Nairobi, its core aim is to transform the society through Art, its uses theatre /entertainment platform to educate and create awareness on social issues affecting educational institutions, leadership, Political systems and the society at large.

Within its capacity it performs two shows every semester in kikuyu campus and are often called upon to perform in other school or college events i.e. Worlds aids Day, Anti-Drug and Alcohol abuse campaign among others.

The main item included a one hour play ‘ECHOES OF MY IMAGES’ Scripted by the members/students, a skit on Alcohol and Drug abuse Poem and spoken words.

The chapter achieved the main objective which was to create awareness among teachers-students in CEES of what goes on in Educational institutions i.e. High Schools. The play highlighted issues such as teacher-teacher affairs, student-teacher affairs and their results.

Students following the play at MPH

