

ABSTRACT

Report on a survey of interlibrary lending among academic and special libraries in Kenya, carried out in 1989. Analyzes the results under the headings: holdings; areas of specialization; involvement in interlending; materials lent and borrowed most; volume of interlibrary lending; problems encountered; trends in interlibrary lending; importance of interlending. Discusses the future of interlending in Kenya