

Consultancy Project

The Department of Management Science is undertaking a consultancy research project titled "Strengthening Market Resource Centres under the Kenya Agricultural Commodity Exchange" in partnership with UNES and the Kenya Institute of Supplies Management.

The Kenya Agricultural Commodity Exchange (KACE) provides specialized market information to agricultural producers using innovative communication technologies. The project is part of an institutional strengthening and capacity building programme for KACE and its partners.

Lead Consultant is Dr. James M. Njihia, Consultants are Dr Waithaka Iraki, Peterson Magutu and Salome Kinyua