

NUARSA ENTREPRENEURSHIP EVENT

Prof. K. Obonyo on his opening remarks which he made very clear that the University of Nairobi is committed to support student in realizing their dreams and ensuring that it produces student who are Holistic and very valuable to the dynamisms of job market, he also posed a challenge on us students that we should always ask ourselves what have we done to reduce the rate of unemployment rather than asking what the government has done to reduce the rate of unemployment.
