

Baringo Governor Welcomes Partnership to Help Animal Owners Prepare for El Nino

Baringo County Governor, H.E Chesire Cheboi (Right) giving a handshake to Prof. Mikiugu Mutembei Henry from College of Agriculture, UoN, during the meeting to plan on helping animal owners prepare for coming floods.

County government of Baringo, led by the Governor, H.E Benjamin Chesire Cheboi, are in partnership with World Animal Protection and the University of Nairobi, through CAVS, are helping animal owners prepare for the coming floods.

With predictions for the 2015-2016 El Nino at a 15-year-high, much of Kenya is on high alert for record flooding. Farmers are among the most vulnerable to floods, potentially losing their main source of livelihood to drowning, displacement and disease.

The event will be on 2nd - 4th October, 2015, in Baringo County.