

COMMUNITY VETERINARY OUTREACH PROGRAMME

The Faculty of Veterinary Medicine in partnership with Jane Goodalls Roots and Shoots - Kenya, Lamek Conservancy and Narok County Government carried out a very successful veterinary outreach activity on the 29th November 2014.

Dean Faculty of Veterinary Medicine Prof C.M Mulei (left) flagging off the caravan to Narok county and Veterinary students attending to a sheep

During the event approximately 3000 cattle, 4000 sheep and goats and 100 dogs were vaccinated and treated.