

Students Sworn-in as ONUSS Officials

ONUSS officials taking oath of office on October 16th, 2015

Melvin Chebet has been sworn in as the first year representative of the Organization of Nairobi University Science Students. Nesy Wangari and Gerald Odhiambo were also sworn in as (ONUSS) officials, on October 16, 2015.

The newly sworn-in officials were urged to share ideas with management on development and changes that can be put in place. They were also informed to get acquainted with the lecturers, whom they can have as their academic referees.

Prof. Bernard Aduda, Principal College of Biological and Physical Sciences (CBPS) notified the students that there will be a leadership training in November 2015 to be held in Limuru, Tigoni. He highlighted that the College ensures student elections are conducted peacefully and fairly, noting "I cannot choose who your leaders are, you choose them yourselves."

Prof. Aduda reiterated that he was available for students and welcomed interaction with them.

The event was witnessed by Ag. Dean School of Physical Sciences, Dr. C.Nyamai, Chief Security Officer, Mr. K. Karemi, College Registrar, Mr. Mbali and lecturers from School of Mathematics, Department of Chemistry and Physics- Prof. R.Simwa, Prof. Y.Abiy and Dr. F.Nyongesa
