

Chinese Culture Wins Pride On The International Day Of Brookhouse

Date and time: Sat, 2015-11-21 15:27

The international day of the brookhouse international school of Nairobi was held at 3:00PM, Nov 21ST. Activities and meetings were held in the music hall and canteen.

All the students at school participate in the activity, they form China, America, Europe, and South America, India culture groups and so on, totally 14 groups. They cooked the traditional food of the country and showed the characteristics of the culture. Chinese food and Kongfu taichi attracted many people and win the pride. More people impressed by Chinese culture, there must be another Chinese hot spot nearby.